DFEH CIVIL RIGHTS RENAISSANCE

In 1914, Red Fox James, a Blackfoot Indian, rode horseback from state to state seeking approval for a day to honor Native Americans as the first Americans. In 1915, the American Indian Association call for the observance of and President Calvin Coolidge issued a proclamation for an American Indian Day. In 1990 President George H. W. Bush approved a joint resolution designating November 1990 "National American Indian Heritage Month." Similar proclamations have been issued each year since 1994.

Race and national origin discrimination in employment and housing is unlawful under the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA). The California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) investigates, mediates, and prosecutes violations of the FEHA. Having celebrated the FEHA's first half century, this year ushers in a new era of civil rights renaissance filled with a renewed commitment to providing public service, outreach, advocacy and resource.
